CONSTRUCTION PROGRESS

8/18/11

"We are thrilled about acquiring our new indoor tennis facility to be completed in Fall 2011. Mal Moore is committed to staying on the cutting edge in building state-of-the-art athletic facilities at The University of Alabama. This is a testament to the leading-edge thinking that will continue to promote and cultivate the Championship mentality at Alabama. Coach Moore takes tremendous pride in setting the standard in the premier SEC and on a national level as well. This endeavor will assuredly help attract top notch student athletes who desire playing on the big stage."

MEDIA INFORMATION

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with head coach Jenny Mainz and all student-athletes must be arranged through Assistant Director of Media Relations Jessica Paré. On match days, interviews will not be available until all competition has finished.

INTERNET

Information about University of Alabama athletics can be found on the internet at RollTide.com. For information about the Crimson Tide men's tennis team, select men's tennis under the sports dropdown menu on the home page. In addition, information can be found on various social networks including facebook, twitter and YouTube by searching for AlabamaWTN.

FACILITIES

Both the men's and women's tennis teams practice and compete at the University of Alabama Tennis Stadium located adjacent to Rhoads Stadium on 5th Ave. East. The 12-court facility also includes team locker rooms, coaches' offices, a training room and team meeting room. A new addition to the complex this season will be a six-court indoor facility that is expected to be completed by the start of dual-match play in January.

UA VIDEO FEEDS/TELEVISION

The University of Alabama, through the Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN), offers a FTP site that provide up-to-date interviews with coaches and athletes, taped video highlights and narrated tape packages from September through May. On occasion, the women's tennis team is featured in this package. Please call the Media Relations Office for more details at 205.348.6084.

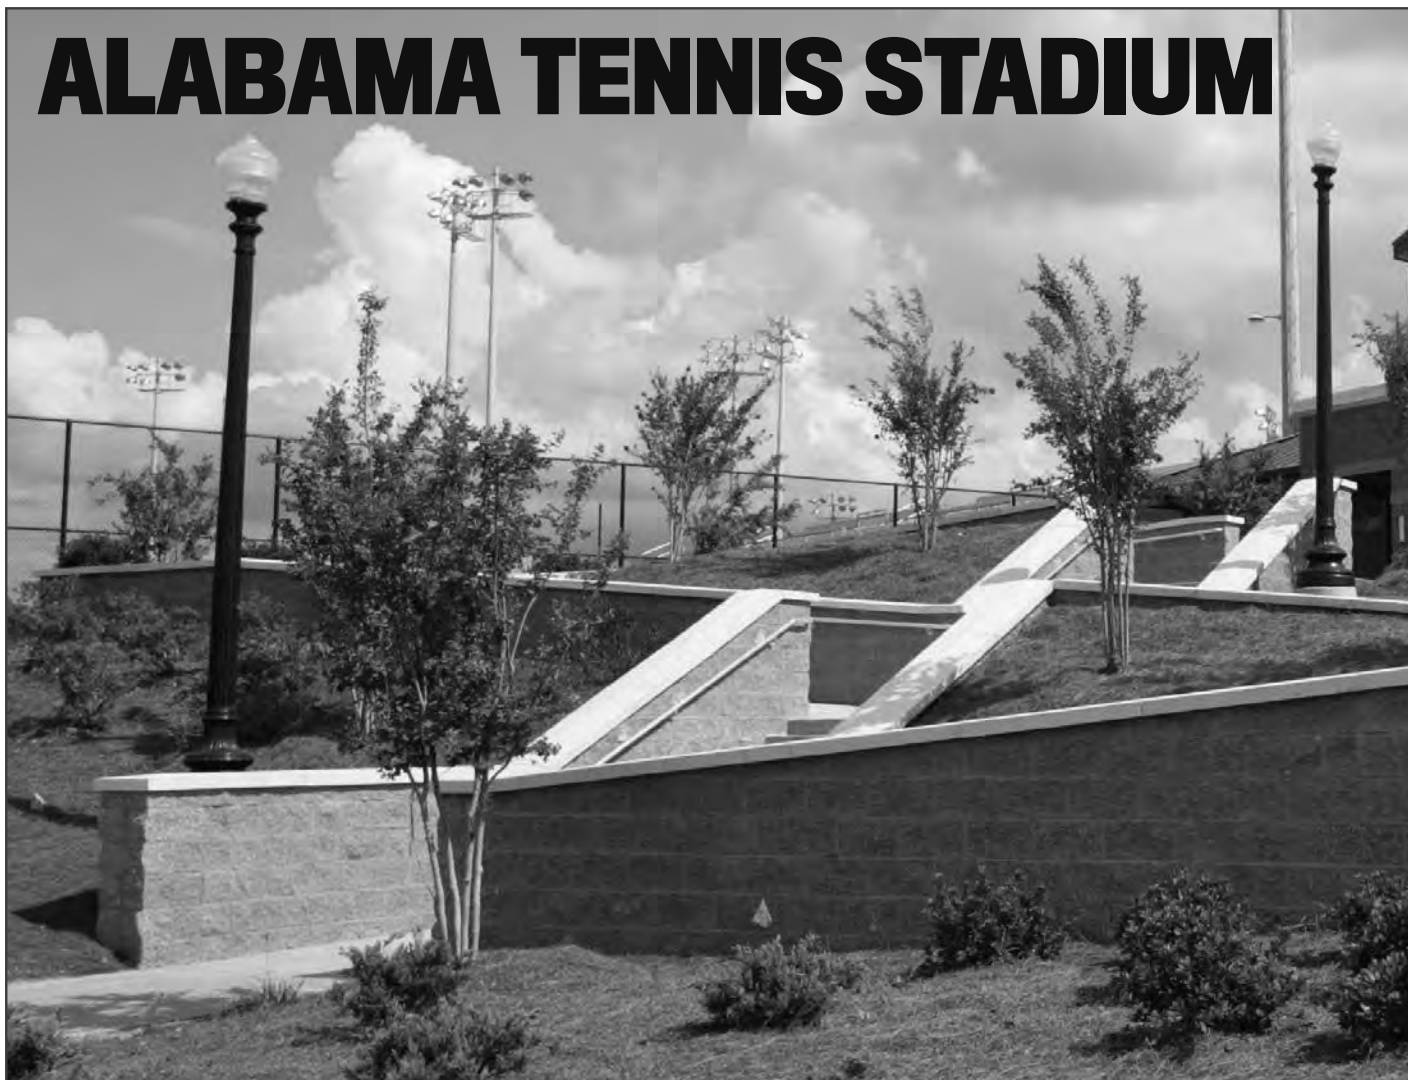

SEC VIDEO FEEDS/TELEVISION

Participating news affiliates can also select individual clips to insert directly into online stories. Television stations also have access to an FTP account to run content on-air. The SEC Affiliate Network is managed through XOS Digital. To join, please request a participation form from the program's director, Anna Marie Neri, at aneri@xosdigital.com or at 407.670.5049.

ALABAMA TENNIS STADIUM

Alabama tennis student-athletes have the privilege of playing in one of the finest facilities in the country as the Alabama Tennis Stadium was one of nine winners of the 25th Annual USTA Facility Awards Program. The outdoor complex, built in 2004, features 12 hard courts with overhead seating for 2,000 spectators that faces all courts.

The $4.2 million facility houses a team lounge with a flat screen television and couches, a conference room, coaches' offices, player locker rooms with private restrooms and showers, a full-service athletic training room and a concession stand with kitchen. In addition, the facility contains an elevator from the first level up to the seating area.

Not only is this complex conducive to the highest level of competitive play, it is also a terrific place for hosting school and community tournaments, with amenities for spectators and visiting teams.

The newest addition to the complex, which is expected to be finished for the start of the 2012 dual match season, will be the six-court indoor facility located adjacent to the outdoor courts.

"We are thrilled about acquiring our new indoor tennis facility," Alabama head women's tennis coach Jenny Mainz said. "Mal Moore is committed to staying on the cutting edge in building state-of-the-art athletic facilities at The University of Alabama. This is a testament to the leading-edge thinking that will continue to promote and cultivate the championship mentality at Alabama. Coach Moore takes tremendous pride in setting the standard in the premier SEC and on a national level as well. This endeavor will assuredly help attract top notch student-athletes that desire playing on the big stage."

The addition of the indoor tennis courts will not only provide a facility for the teams to compete during implement weather, but it also will benefit Alabama when submitting bids to host events such as the NCAA First and Second Rounds.

Life on The University of Alabama campus is defined by opportunities. If you want to get involved, join one of more than 300 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

If you enjoy the arts, you can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. You can enrich your knowledge of the state and University's history by visiting one of UA's fine museums, which house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

From the architecture on campus to the landscaping, The University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama.

The Ferguson Center, completed in 1973, was named for Hill Ferguson, a member of the Board of Trustees. Plans at the time called for the building to be constructed over Woods Hall, but it was built just to the north thanks to a student campaign to save the art building.

The Ferguson Center Game Room located on the first floor is the perfect place to unwind, test your skill at a video game, play a friendly game of pool or ping-pong, or enter a campus tournament. With seven pool tables, video games, a ping-pong table, computer gaming and televisions, the Game Room offers a fun escape to the daily pressures of college life.

The University of Alabama offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Whatever your interests, you'll find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

The newly expanded Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities to students, faculty and staff. It includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court— together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet. The facility's outdoor aquatic area, which opened in the summer of 2003, features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and lots of deck space.

TOP RANKED

Ranked among the top 50 public universities in the nation in U.S. News and World Report's annual college rankings for more than a decade, UA ranked 31st among public universities, its highest ranking ever, in the 2012 rankings. UA's latest college rankings include:

- The School of Law is ranked 35th among all law schools in the nation, spring 2011.
- The Manderson Graduate School of Business ranks 32nd among public universities and 63rd among all universities, spring 2011.
- The School of Library and Information Studies is ranked 22nd nationally, spring 2009.

Enrollment at The University of Alabama reached a record high of 31,747 for fall 2011. The entering freshman class, at 5,772 students, is the largest in UA history and includes 1,614 students who had a 4.0 or higher high school grade point average.

The University of Alabama's fall 2010 freshman class ranked 6th in the nation among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars. While rankings for the 2011 freshman class are not yet available, 182 National Merit Scholars are enrolled in this fall's freshman class, up by more than 50 over last year's 128.

The University of Alabama has produced a total of 15 Rhodes Scholars. And, in the past 25 years, UA has produced 34 Goldwater Scholars, 21 Hollings Scholars and seven Truman Scholars. UA scored a perfect four out of four with Goldwater Scholars in 2011 as all four UA students who applied were named recipients of the elite academic award.

The University of Alabama led the nation with a record 10 students named to USA Today's 2010 All-USA College Academic Team. UA has had great success in placing students on this national team that honors the "best of the best" undergraduate academic all-stars from across the nation, having placed 46 students on the team since 2003. In addition to this year, UA also had the most students on the list in 2003, 2005, 2006, 2008 and 2009 and tied for the top spot in 2007.

PRWeek Magazine has recognized the public relations program in The University of Alabama's College of Communication and Information Sciences as one of the top five programs in the nation each of the last three years.

University of Alabama students are committed to community service: In the 2009-2010 academic year, some 15,100 UA students completed more than 710,000 hours of community service with more than 120 community partners. Additionally, 120 UA faculty members offered service-learning courses, and an estimated 5,300 students participated in them.

The University of Alabama has been named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll by the Corporation for National and Community Service. The Community Service Honor Roll is the highest federal recognition a school can achieve for its commitment to service learning and civic engagement.

MAL M. MOORE

A T H L E T I C S D I R E C T O R

The University of Alabama's Director of Athletics since 1999, Mal Moore has made an indelible mark on one of the nation's most storied athletic programs, leading a department that has enjoyed tremendous success athletically and academically while enjoying an unprecedented period of growth during his tenure.

Through his guidance, Alabama's athletic department remains focused on his vision of having all Crimson Tide athletic teams and student-athletes competitive at the highest level nationally while continuing to elevate athletic facilities at the Capstone to premier status nationally for all sports.

During his tenure as Director of Athletics, Moore has overseen more than $200 million of capital improvements to University of Alabama athletic facilities. Those projects have encompassed the entire scope of all Crimson Tide athletic programs and have benefitted every Alabama student-athlete, coach, and administrator.

Throughout his multi-faceted career, Moore has worked with a diversified field of constituents, from fellow coaches and former players, to fans and the business community. All of those experiences and relationships - in addition to his ability to unify those many constituents - have made him the ideal person to lead Alabama athletics in the 21st century.

His leadership has been crucial in helping guide Alabama through a period that has been, at times, extremely challenging. His guidance and effort helped Alabama athletics weather the storm, while continuing to move in a positive direction toward a future that holds great promise.

Moore's dedication to, and love of, the University of Alabama was recognized on March 28, 2007, when as a permanent tribute to his lifelong contributions to The University of Alabama, the Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama System officially dedicated the facility formerly known as The Football Building as the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility.

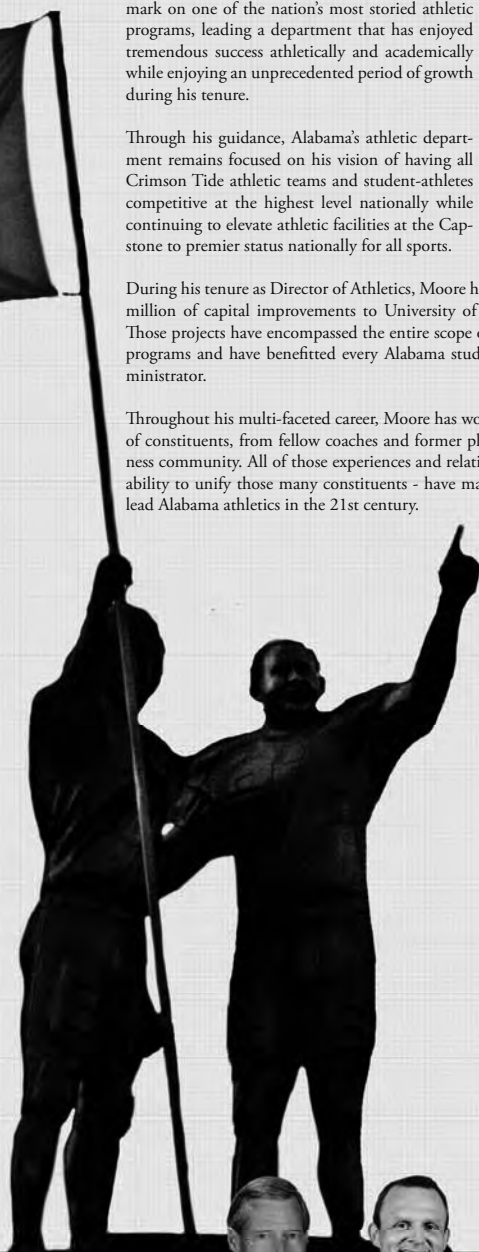

Under Moore's direction, Alabama's athletic teams have produced three national championships - the 2009 football title and the 2002 and 2011 NCAA gymnastics championships - as well as several Southeastern Conference championships, winning titles in football, gymnastics, men's basketball, women's golf, men's golf, men's cross country, baseball and softball; taking SEC tournament titles in both baseball and softball. Alabama athletes have earned some of the highest honors the SEC and NCAA have to offer, including SEC Athlete of the Year, SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, NCAA Top VIII, NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships and NCAA Sportsman of the Year. These honors are over and above the individual conference and national titles that Alabama athletes continue to bring home to the Capstone on a regular basis.

In addition to making his mark on Alabama, Moore has also had a national impact as a key member of several prestigious NCAA and college football committees. Moore has served on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee, the SEC Athletic Directors Bowl Advisory Committee and the Big Six Conferences Minority Coaches Forum.

Moore's distinguished record of service to UA began more than 50 years ago when he joined the Crimson Tide football squad as a scholarship player for Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1958-62. Moore has the distinction of being a part of eight national championship teams (1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978, 1979, 1992 and 2009) with the first coming as a player, the next six during his coaching career and the most recent during his tenure as director of athletics. As a player and coach, he was also part of 14 SEC championships and 27 bowl trips. He is the only individual connected with the Alabama program to be a part of eight national championships.

During a coaching career that spanned 31 years, Moore spent 22 of those at Alabama with stops at Montana State, Notre Dame and the NFL's St. Louis/Phoenix Cardinals. At Alabama, Moore started as a graduate assistant under Coach Bryant in 1964, then as defensive backfield coach for six seasons (1965-70) before becoming quarterbacks coach from 1971-82, serving as the Tide's first offensive coordinator starting in 1975. He would go on to coordinate all of the offensive plays for several of Alabama's national championship football teams.

A 1963 graduate of The University of Alabama, Moore holds both an undergraduate degree in sociology and a 1964 Master's degree in secondary education from the Capstone. Moore was born December 19, 1939, in Dozier, Ala. He and the late Mrs. Charlotte Moore have one daughter, Mrs. Steve (Heather) Cook of Scottsdale, Ariz., a granddaughter, Anna Lee, and a grandson, Charles Cannon.

As president of The University of Alabama, Dr. Robert E. Witt has committed the University to an ambitious plan for academic growth and achievement.

His goals include increasing enrollment by recruiting academically talented students from Alabama and across the country, stimulating significant growth in research and strongly supporting the state's economic development efforts. Under his leadership, enrollment has reached record levels and now numbers more than 30,000.

Academic quality and scholarship opportunities for deserving students have increased significantly. The University ranks 6th nationally among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars and leads the nation in the number of students named to USA Today's All-USA College Academic Teams.

Since its inception in 2003, the University's Honors College has grown exponentially, and currently enrolls more than 1,300 freshmen each year. UA's loyal alumni and friends continue to provide a high level of support to the University, with private giving having an important impact on the University's ability to fund scholarships, faculty support and construction projects.

Prior to joining The University of Alabama in 2003, Dr. Witt spent 35 years as a faculty member and administrator in the University of Texas System. He received his B.A. in economics from Bates College, his M.B.A. from Tuck School at Dartmouth College, and his Ph.D. from Penn State University. He serves on the boards of directors of the West Alabama Chamber of Commerce, the Black Warrior Council Boy Scouts of America, and the American Cast Iron Pipe Company. He is a member of the Tuscaloosa County Industrial Development Authority. Dr. Witt and his wife, Sandee, have five grandchildren.

Head Coach

15th Season

Jenny MAINZ

Houston, 1991

For Head Coach Jenny Mainz and her teams it has always been about unity and competing with one heartbeat. As she enters her 15th season at Alabama, things will be no different as this year's squad has already, and will continue to, play together and make self-sacrifices for the betterment of the team.

"We pride ourselves on the commitment, work ethic and enthusiasm we play with day-in and day-out," Mainz said. "I believe our players have a contagious spirit. They truly enjoy and respect the game of tennis, and they take tremendous pride in being ambassadors for the University of Alabama. They recognize and appreciate the opportunity to wear the Alabama jersey and compete with dignity and class."

Mainz's teams have had tremendous success both on and off the court, which is something she takes great pride in. From the moment a student-athlete steps foot on campus, Mainz and her staff work diligently to assist in developing student-athletes to their greatest potential.

"I'm most proud of the fact that we have consistently attracted individuals whose character and integrity are unparalleled," Mainz added. "We've been fortunate to have student-athletes involved in our program that are highly motivated, have exceptional leadership qualities and have embraced the chance to positively impact our tennis program."

Throughout her tenure at the Capstone, Mainz has coached four Academic All-Americans, the 2011 Southeastern Conference Scholar-Athlete of the Year in Courtney McLane, and a host of SEC Honor Roll recipients. She has also seen her teams excel together earning the University's highest GPA award among Alabama's varsity sports six times since 2002, including the 2008 title, which the team earned with a combined overall 3.51 grade point average.

"Alabama continues to grow, advance and make steady progress in the direction of being the finest and most reputable university in the country,"

Mainz stated. "President Witt and Mal Moore's commitment to attract and recruit the best and the brightest is evidenced in the impressive, first-class facilities, the extraordinary growth in enrollment and faculty and staff and the notable academic standards that continue to strengthen."

Mainz, the only coach in Alabama history to take the Crimson Tide to six consecutive NCAA Tournaments, helped Robin Stephenson earn 2005 All-American status in singles, becoming just the second player in Tide history to do so.

Under Mainz's direction, Alabama has had eight top-40 finishes as a team, while 14 singles players and eight doubles teams have finished the season ranked in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association poll. In the 2011 preseason doubles rankings, Mainz's talented duo of Alexa Guarachi and Courtney McLane captured the highest ranking in program history as they began the fall season at No. 2 in the nation.

Mainz has had much success in her years at Alabama, but 2011 was perhaps the most successful. It was evident Mainz was putting something special together early on when the Tide went to the USTA/ITA Southern Regional Championships and swept both the singles and doubles titles which granted Alabama a spot in the prestigious USTA/ITA National Indoor Championships in Flushing, N.Y. That success continued on into dual match play where the Tide went 15-5 in the regular season en route to capturing the 2011 SEC Western Division title.

A host of Alabama representatives were honored at the conclusion of the season as Mainz was named SEC Coach of the Year, Mary Anne Macfarlane the league's Freshman of the Year and McLane taking home SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year recognition. Macfarlane was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team and the All-SEC First Team, where she was joined by Guarachi, while McLane garnered All-SEC Second Team honors. In addition, Mainz was named the ITA Southern Region Coach of the Year, Macfarlane the ITA Southern Region Rookie of the Year and Guarachi the ITA Southern Region Player to Watch.

The 2010 season was one of many injuries for Alabama, which came on the heels of another successful season under Mainz as she saw her team reach No. 16 in the nation in 2009. The Tide finished 26th after qualifying for the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2006, which was the highest finish for Alabama since achieving the same ranking in 2001. The team raced out to an 11-0 start, setting the school record for consecutive wins. For her stellar season, Mainz was named the 2009 Wilson/ITA South Region Coach of the Year.

Since taking over the program in 1998, Mainz has coached Alabama to the school's first, second and third SEC Western Division Championships, which the Tide captured in 2003, 2006 and most recently in 2011. In 2004, she led Alabama to its fourth-straight winning season – an accomplishment that had not been done at Alabama in 11 years – capturing six of that year's nine matches decided by one point.

Mainz is actively involved in collegiate tennis on the national front serving on the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's Operating Committee. She also served as the chairperson for the ITA's South Region for five years and assumed the same role for the newly-formed Southern Region in 2010.

Mainz, once ranked in the top ten nationally in doubles, was a three-year team captain for the University of Houston Cougars and a two-time All-Southwest Conference selection, garnering numerous accolades for her dedication to the game of tennis on the court. Off the court, however, is where she really shined, earning GTE Academic All-American status and Dean's List honors while a member of the Omicron Delta Kappa Honor Society. Mainz graduated with a degree in kinesiology from Houston in 1991.

Assistant Coach

First Season

Drake BERNSTEIN

Georgia, 2011

Drake Bernstein, one of only 14 players in Georgia history to win over 100 matches in his career, enters his first season as assistant coach of the University of Alabama women's tennis team.

Bernstein, a four-year letterwinner for the Bulldogs, compiled a 112-44 record in singles and 84-56 mark in doubles throughout his tenure in Athens. In 2011, he was an All-SEC Second Team selection and was the recipient of Georgia's Copas Leadership Award while serving as a team captain. As a junior, Bernstein led the team in match clinchers with six on the season, with his final one coming in the second round of the NCAA Championships helping the Bulldogs advance with a 4-3 win over Florida State. He was also vital as a sophomore, clinching four team wins with one coming against eighth-ranked Florida on an ace and another over No. 6 Tennessee to give Georgia the SEC Eastern Division title. That season, he was named to the ITA National Team Indoors All-Tournament Team helping the Bulldogs reach the finals.

Bernstein, a native of Winder, Ga., enjoyed a stellar prep career as well, posting an 82-1 record that included 79 straight victories. He was named the 2007 Athens Banner Herald Boys Tennis Player of the Year and was a three-time Athens Banner Herald All-Northeast Georgia selection. Bernstein led Winder-Barrow High School to its first state tournament appearance in 2006 and followed that up with another trip in 2007. According to Tennisrecruiting.net., he was a four-star recruit, ranked 15th nationally, ninth in the Southeast and No. 2 in the state of Georgia.

Bernstein graduated from the University of Georgia in May of 2011 with a degree in sports studies.

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference men's and women's tennis programs continue to be among the nation's leaders on the collegiate hardcourt.

The conference won its seventh team title on the women's side in 2011. Florida defeated Clemson in the Round of 16, 4-1; Miami, 4-1 in the quarterfinals; and UCLA 4-0 in the semifinals before finally defeating host Stanford, 4-3 for the Ga-tors fifth national title.

Eight teams earned bids to the NCAA Division I Tennis Championships with Florida, Georgia and Vanderbilt advancing to the Round of 16 in Palo Alto, Calif. Vanderbilt lost to North Carolina, 4-0 in that round. Georgia defeated Cal, 4-3 then lost to Stanford, 4-0 in the quarterfinals.

In the final, Florida's ren Embree was defeated by Stanford's Stacey Tan in the semifinal round, 5-7, 6-3, ret.

In doubles, Georgia's Kate Fuller and Chelsey Gullickson lost to Barte/Burdette of Stanford in the quarterfinals.

Florida's Alex Cercone and Allie Will also lost in the quarterfinals. They were defeated by Clemson's Bek/Wong.

A total of seven ITA All-America honors were awarded to SEC student-athletes this season to put the totals at 118 singles and 132 double honors since 1990.

Mary Anne Macfarlane was named SEC Freshman of the Year in 2011

Baili Camino

SINGLES

Baili Camino posted one of the most impressive seasons in Crimson Tide history in 1997. The Ft. Meyers, Fla., native posted a 28-12 mark playing at No. 1 for the Crimson Tide. She became the first player in Tide history to earn bids to the main draw of all four collegiate grand slam events. At the National Claycourt Championships, the first leg of the collegiate grand slam, she made it to the semifinals before falling to eventual champion Lauren Nikolaus of William and Mary.

After helping the Tide to make it to the NCAA Championships, Camino again made Alabama history by winning her way to the round of 16 in the NCAA Championships singles draw, thereby earning All-American honors. She beat No. 7 Melissa Zimpher of Wisconsin in the first round and UNLV's No. 12 ranked Marianne Vallin, before being upset by Duke's No. 50 ranked Wendy Fix.

Marouschka van Dijk Titia Wilmink

DOUBLES

Titia Wilmink came to Tuscaloosa from Pijnacker, The Netherlands. She arrived on the Alabama campus in the fall of 1990 and by her sophomore year she had become the first Crimson Tide women's tennis player in a decade to make it to the NCAA Championships. In 1992, making it into the field from the second alternate slot, she made it into the NCAA field.

In the fall of 1991, Marouschka van Dijk, of Apeldoorn, Holland, joined Wilmink at the Capstone and the seed was planted for the most successful doubles tandem in Tide history.

In 1993, Wilmink, then a senior, and van Dijk, then a sophomore, swatted their way into Alabama women's tennis legend, becoming the program's first All-Americans.

Wilmink-van Dijk became one of the nation's hottest pairings, making history at the Riviera All-American Championship by becoming the first duo to emerge from qualifying all the way to the championship final in that fall Grand Slam Event. They brought home Alabama's first regional title, winning the 1993 South Region Doubles Championship in their own backyard of Tuscaloosa.

Positioned at the No. 1 doubles slot for Alabama, they were ranked as high as No. 7 nationally, a mark that pushed them into the NCAA Tournament as the seventh seeds - a coup that nets instant All-American status.

By year's end the "Dutch Duo" collected a 28-7 overall record, winning 13 of their final 15 matches. They ended the year ranked No. 10 nationally and embedded themselves in Alabama women's tennis lore as its first All-Americans.

Robin Stephenson

SINGLES

Robin Stephenson became just the second Alabama singles player to earn All-American honors in the spring of 2005. Stephenson posted a 27-13 record, her third consecutive 20-win season, during her junior campaign and finished the season ranked ninth in the final ITA rankings. She also qualified for her second consecutive NCAA singles tournament en route to earning All-American distinction.

Throughout the course of the season she became the highest ranked singles player in the history of Alabama tennis when she reached No. 4 in the ITA rankings on Sept. 6, 2005. Sixteen of her 27 wins in 2005 came against ranked opponents. In October, Stephenson advanced to the semifinals of the ITA South Regional Championships and in November, she fought back after an opening round loss to win the consolation draw at the ITA National Indoor Championships.
